Meeting of American Members. We are requested to state that a meeting of the American Members of the Legislature will 1, City Hotel. It is hoped there will be a general attendance.

Post Office Letter List.

A card from Gen. Dan't S. Dongtson appears in the Parrior of this morning. We cannot let it go before our readers without a word of comment. The article of the Parsior to which he refers as having commented "severely" on his political course, and made "bitter charges" against his consistency, ess that attends him everywhere, is caring desiness, sore d d not transcend the bounds of honorable controversy. It did not approximate the severity of some and the Dr is said to insert artificial eye- without pain, and of the comments of presses of the sham democracy-one of them in his own county-upon his brother, and which he, so far as is known to the public, never attempted to rebuke, even when they held bimself up in contrast to the disparagement of that brother. Never, in the political annals of Tenpessee, has any man been pursued with more vindictiveness and "malignity" than Maj Donelson, since he declined to co-operate with the sham democracy in their opposition to the reforms proprosed by the American Party. But, these matters aside, were the "bitter charges" of the Paraior without foundation? The principal charge,-the only one of serious import -was that Gen. Donelson took sides with the nullifiers in 1832, against Gen. Jackson, and figured at a meeting in Sumner designed to break down Jacksonism. This Gen. Donelson, in a card, denied, but as he admitted at the same time that the meeting was to favor the movement to make Mr. Barbour Vice President over Mr. Van Buren, the choice of Gen. Jackson, we did not regard the question worthy of further remark on our part. Before dismissing the matter finally, we may now add, that the admission of Gen. Donelson, in the extract of a letter appended to the card of Msj. Donelson in another column, that his feelings were wholly with the nullifiers of South Carolina, places the question beyond controversy, and shows that our charge was not altogether unfounded.

Gen. Donelson has chosen to regard the comments of the Paraior as "bitter and malignant." We hope this may not be attributed to the fact that every thing which passes through his mind assumes its color, and is bright and beautiful, or dark and damning, as his temper is screne or disturbed To whatever it may be ascribed we commend to him a little more philosophy and a deal more patience-the practice of these homely virtues, if his parry carries out the wishes of his friends, may be of service to him, at least so long as the Legisla ture continues in session.

We congratulate the citizens of the neighborhood of Flat Rock upon their good fortune in obtaining the services of Mr. W. H. McLaughlin, as a school teacher. In addition to considerable experience, Mr. McLaugulin brings to the position superior natural abilities, a ripe primary and cla-sical scholarship, a rich store of information in all the various departments of literature, and every attribute of a thoroughly accomplished gentleman

BOCK AGAIN."-Our friend BLACK, the Portrait Painter, who has been absent a couple of months at the North, returned Friday evening, much improved in health, and will resume his labors at his MAYO, HENDERSON & LONG. studio, over the Book Store of W. T. Berry & Co. this morning.

THEATRE.-Mr. and Mrs. John Drew sppear again to night in two pieces, the French Commedietta "Delicate Ground, or Paris during the Rev-Olution," and the "White Horse of the Peppers." Boards of every variety of quality and thickness. We also furnish lumber in the rough. Painted and Glazed Such always on hand. Walnut and other hard woods songs. We have never had a couple here who have taken a firmer hold, in so short a time, upon the good will of our play-goers. They have, by their correct delineations of character, which sparkle amidst ordinary attempts as diamonds among the baser stones, relieved the tedium of the theatrical season, and revived in a great meausure, the popular taste for the drama. We cannot doubt that they will continue to achieve additional triumphs, throughout their engagement.

For the Daily Nashville Patriot. To the Public.

Some few weeks since a communication signed "Sumner," appeared in the columns of the Union and American, advocating my election as Speaker of the House of Representatives, at the approaching session of the Legislature. This article was written and published without any consultation with me, or knowledge of its contents on my part, until it appeared in the newspaper. It contained an allusion to my political differences with my brother, Andrew J. Donelson, but as I am informed, was neither conceived or written in any unkindly spirit towards him. Soon after the appearance of this article, an editorial appeared in the Patriot commenting very severely on my political course, and making bitter charges against my consistency. Although perfectly satisfied that the basis of these accusations was furnished by my brother, I answered it in the Union under my own signature in as temperate and moderate terms as it was possible to couch a reply & such charges This reply remained without a rejoinder for some # me, and it was my carnest hope that the controversy had terminated; but on the 2nd inst. the Patriot contained a long communication, signed "ANTI-NULLIFIER," more bitter and malignant than the first, and entering into matters connected with the family history of Major Donelson and myself, and proposing to sustain certain charges by reference to old letters and documents. Feeling perfeetly satisfied that this last attack came from my brother, and wishing to ascertain the truth of my suspicion before entering on any defence of myself, or attack on a other, I call d on the editor of the Patriot for the author of this communication, and | e has given me the name of my brother, Andrew J. Donelson, by his consent. Every feeling of my nature forbids my entering into a political contest Whatever charges he may make against me, sha go unanswered. I will not open to public gaze the brotherly correspondence of former years, or reopen with him difficulties over which the ashes of oblivion ought to be spread. There will, therefore, be no further public controversy between us. DAN'L S. DONELSON.

We are sutherized to announce Mosas Singlaton, Esq., a candidate for United States Senator.

The National Intelligencer is pleased to learn from Col. Benton's physicians that his case wears a very favorable appearance, and there is now every reason to anticipate a steady improvement and early recovery.

OLD AND POOR .- A writer in the Boston Courier -Geo. S. Hillard-thus touchingly expresses a great truth : "It was formerly our fortune-not an enviable one-to administer the insolvent law. An old man who came under our jurisdiction, once said to us: "It is baid to be old and poor." It was a simple remark, but the tone and look gave it pathos and significance; and how sadly, painfully true it is! The young man can confront fortune; the stone which she flings at him he can pick up and set as a jewel in his crest; but the old man falls under the blow. Rejoice then man of genius in thy genius! O pure in heart, rejoice in thy purity! and O young man, rejoice in thy youth, for time and thou are good against any two!"

Malicious. - Flora, - "Can you still see the steamer, Lucy, dear?" Lucy .- "Oh yes, quite plainly !" Flora - "And dear, dear William, too?" Lucy .- "Oh yes!"

Flora .- "Does he seem unhappy, now he is away from me?" Lucy - "Evidently, I should say, dear; for he is tun bler to cheer him, poor fellow !"

AN IMPORTANT ITEM TO THE SURVIVORS OF THE LATE WAR WITH MEXICO.

Da. C. M. Jackson. Dear Sir: - After my return from Mexico, I was seriously afflicted with that terrible disease which has carried to the grave so many of my fellowsoldiers, Ohronic Diarrhosa, accompanied with Neuralgia, brought on by the climate of Mexico, and the mode of living, while engaged in the war. The relief I have obtained from the use of Hooffand's German Bitters is as toni-hing, and I most cheerfully have, and still continue to recommend the Bitters to all who are similarly affected, believ ng that the benefit that will result from their use will be incalculable. Very respectfully yours,

NEURALGIA. A gentleman living in I hiladelphia says:

"In passing through Pittsburgh, some months since, I purchased a bottle of Borhave's Holland Bitters. It releved me so much, that on returning home I bought two more bottles from Dr. Dyott, which completely cured me f Neuralgia. I have recomended the article to many of my friends, and four or five of the number say it cured them. I think that my recommendation has done more for its sa e in Philadelphia than your advertising." Lying in the county of Warren, immediately on the Stage Road leading from Murfreesboro to McMinnville, 9 miles from the latter place, and within 7 miles of the Manchester and McMinnville Railroad. ON TUESDAY, OCTOBER 27th, 1857. I will offer for sale, on the premises, to the highest bidder about 7000 Acres of excellent lands in Warren county, about 7 000 Acres of excellent lands in Warren county. They are gently unfulating, and the portions not cleared studded with fine oak, poplar, hickory, walnut, and other descriptions of timber, producing mast in abundance.—Charley's creek, an unfailing stream, furnishing an abundance of water, runs through the centre of them, and there are, in addition, twenty fine Springs scattered through them. The soil is well adapted to the cultivation of Corn, Wheat, Cats, all the small grains, and domestic grauge and will compare favorable with the bast Warren grasses, and will compare favorably with the best Warren ounty lands. Producing grass spontaneously, in abun ance, there is no better range for cattle and sheep in the State. A portion of the lands are improved, there being some eight or ten cultivated farms, with cottages, upon the writes, Sept. 6, 1855; "During my practice of m ny years cock. The whole body of them has, however, been I have found nothing equal to your Cheray Pecrokal for recently surveyed and sid off in small tracts, containing from 100 to 800 acres, and fronting on a public road. In point of scolety the location has many advantages; we might add volumes of evidences, but the most con-rincing proof of the virtues of this remedy is found in its effects upon trial. McMinnville, the county seat, is but nine miles off, near which it is believed the great Southern University, to be established under the auspices of the Episcopal church, will be located; thus enhancing the value of all the lands in the neighborhood. The celebrated watering place. Beersheba, is but 25 miles distant. The healthfulness of this portion of Middle Tennessee is proverbial, it is the Summer retreat of numbers of persons from the South. This sale will afford an unusually fine opportunity to nose desirous of purchasing stock farms, in one of the best sections of the State, and it is hoped that all such, as well as those who may wish merely to obtain a place of refuge from the heats of summer, will examine these
